Burrage seeking Senate seat

Sean Burrage, a Claremore attorney and legislative director for David Boren when he served in the U.S. Senate, announced Wednesday that he is running for the Oklahoma State Senate in Mayes and Rogers counties.

The 37-year-old Democrat and his wife, Carole, have two young sons.

Sean and Carole both graduated from OU and OU School of Law, and Carole served on the faculty at Rogers State until last semester when she resigned to stay home with their children.

Stratton Taylor, a Claremore Democrat, currently holds the Senate District 2 seat being sought by Burrage. Taylor cannot seek re-election because of term limits.
